

Nguyễn Thị Thu Hằng

Lawyer

Lawyer Nguyen Thi Thu Hang is a reputable legal professional in Vietnam, with over 10 years of experience in the legal field. With her flexible and effective approach to handling a wide range of legal issues — from resolving commercial business disputes, providing corporate legal advice, to civil and labor cases — Lawyer Hằng consistently delivers comprehensive and effective solutions for her clients. Her professional working style, dedication, and sharp analytical skills have enabled her to successfully assist numerous organizations and individuals in protecting their rights and minimizing legal risks.

Kinh nghiệm

AMC Law Firm Company Limited

Legal Associate

- Performed debt management and handling for unsecured loans.
- Negotiated with clients on debt repayment plans.
- Reviewed case files, verified information, and assessed financial sources.
- Prepared periodic and ad hoc reports on debt management progress as requested by leadership.
- Participated in meetings on work planning, operations, performance reviews, and debt management training sessions organized by various units.
- Key performance indicators: Number of secured assets processed for debt recovery; number of non-performing loan cases managed; amount of non-performing debt recovered.

TNTP International Law Firm Company Limited and Associates

Legal Associate

- Directly assist lawyers in legal consultancy and litigation at courts in the fields of civil law, commercial business, etc.;
- Participate in assisting lawyers (Research case files and legal grounds for civil and criminal cases under the lawyers' guidance and propose solutions; Track and update the progress of assigned tasks; Draft various types of legal petitions and documents...);
- Collaborate with lawyers in resolving cases;
- Participate in litigation as an authorized representative of clients;
- Act as an out-of-court representative for clients to perform tasks such as filing complaints, administrative procedures, etc.;
- Research cases and propose solutions;
- Assist clients in managing risks during their business operations;
- Draft and review contracts and legal documents related to each client's field of activity;
- Provide legal advice based on clients' needs in civil, criminal, and economic matters;
- Advise clients' management on legal issues, including labor law, cooperation, joint ventures, investment, etc.;

- Coordinate with clients' departments to implement tasks after their internal decisions have been made.

Notable Cases

- Led a team to resolve disputes for a leading technology company in Vietnam specializing in social networking services and online gaming.
- Provided ongoing legal consultancy and represented a major enterprise in the field of road construction in Vietnam, operating under BOT contracts, specifically in construction and implementation of key national projects, including the expansion of National Highway projects.
- Represented a top-tier renewable energy investment enterprise specializing in developing and operating eco-friendly power systems in Vietnam during negotiations and warranty claim settlements with suppliers, ensuring customer rights and service quality.
- Assisted a packaging manufacturing and trading company with operations across all three regions of Vietnam in recovering debts incurred during the company's operations.

Education

- Degree: Bachelor of Laws, Hanoi Law University.
- Training: Completed the Lawyer training program at the Judicial Academy..